“National groups endorse UNITE Women”

BIRMINGHAM, MI—UNITE Women announced today the endorsement of UNITE Women’s April 28 events by two nationally respected organizations.

- COALITION OF LABOR UNION WOMEN (CLUW) “The Coalition of Labor Union Women (CLUW) is a national membership organization based in Washington, DC with chapters throughout the country. Founded in 1974, it is the national women’s organization within the labor movement which is leading the effort to empower women in the workplace, advance women in their unions, encourage political and legislative involvement, organize women workers into unions and promote policies that support women and working families.”
- COFFEE PARTY USA “As we move into the future, the Coffee Party will develop powerful pathways ordinary citizens can follow to unite and participate in our democracy. Using the latest in social media tools and our home-grown infrastructure, we will invite every American to join a community of their peers and become an agent for restoration of a government of, by, and for the people.” – Eric Whinnery, Board of Directors
